1. DPE Diversity Hosting Weekend April 16-18

HOSTS & VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

*Diversity Hosting Weekend*

Diversity Programs in Engineering is seeking volunteers and overnight hosts for the Spring Diversity Hosting Weekend (DHW), April 16-18 and Prospective Candidates Weekend (PCW), April 17-18 . If you would like the opportunity to exhibit warm hospitality and share your Cornell experience with prospective students, please register as a volunteer and/or overnight host via the following link:
<http://www.engineering.cornell.edu/diversity/office-diversity-programs/DPE-Host-and-Volunteer-Form.cfm>

All of these programs engage prospective underrepresented minority and women students in a variety of activities such as lab tours, student panels, opportunities to interact with faculty, and much more. Please consider volunteering your time to help recruit our next class of Cornell engineers!

DHW Hosts receive:-

*$15 CU Store Gift Card or a MILRSO Fashion Show Ticket*

*2 raffle tickets for a DPE First Friday*

Spring Host Training Dates:

Tuesday, March 24 6:00-7:00pm RPCC Multipurpose Room 218

Wednesday, March 25 6:30-7:30pm RPCC Auditorium

2. NYSE seeking technologists

Hi, the NYSE is looking for bright technologists to join our 2009 technology development program. This is a terrific program that I'm sure your club members will find to be a great opportunity. I have attached the job description as well as a link to our website. Anyone interested is invited to email their resumes to dreese@nyx.com.

Thank you!

3. National Science Foundation Science & Technology Centers 2009 Summer

Undergraduate Internship Programs

Dear Prospective Candidate,

We would like to invite you to apply to the NSF-STC Summer Undergraduate Internship Program. The National Science Foundation Science and Technology Centers (STCs) offer paid summer internships at our seventeen centers, located at prestigious universities around the United States. These summer internships provide undergraduates an opportunity to conduct research in a graduate school setting in the following fields: 1) biological sciences, 2) computer and information sciences, 3) engineering, 4) geosciences, and 5) mathematical and physical sciences.

These summer research opportunities are fully funded and are an excellent way to gain a competitive edge toward graduate school. The centers are currently accepting applications for the 2009 Summer Programs. Deadlines are rapidly approaching and I would like to encourage anyone interested to apply. For more information on participating Centers and their application process and deadlines please access our website at www.nsfstc.org.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me via email at wuehara@cens.ucla.edu. Thank you for your time, and I look forward to seeing your application.

Sincerely,

Wesley Uehara
Recruiting Manager
NSF-Science & Technology Centers

4. Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory

SWE Chapter,

The Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory is a nationally recognized, university-affiliated R&D center investigating some of the nation's most complex science and engineering problems. Scientists and engineers work at the leading edge of technology in over 200 programs, ranging from defense systems engineering to space science and biomedicine. We are actively recruiting for new graduates for entry level technical employment opportunities and internships

Click here to learn more about our organization.

We strongly encourage everyone with relevant background and professional interests to consider opportunities at APL. Due to the nature of our work, most positions at APL require U.S. citizenship.

Thank you,

Stacy D. Murphy
